Saturday Last Day of Metzger-Wright's 47 Anniversary Sale

Only one more day remains of the Metzger-Wright 47th. Anniversary Sale. Many new items are being offered for this last day. Items that have just arrived in the store. It will pay anyone to take advantage of these values on this last day.

A number of entries have been made to the Lilac Tournament which ends at noon tomorrow and still others are coming in. It is expected that there will be a large number represented before the time is up.

A $25 War Bond is being given away tomorrow to some one who will hold the right serial number. As each person enters the store, he will be given a piece of paper on which will be printed a serial number and if that number corresponds to the one which is posted somewhere in the store, he will win the Bond, no merchandise need be bought. Upsets are expected in the Lilac Marathon, the salesperson's contest, on this last day, and so, it is urged that each one patronize his favorite salesperson, as it may help him or her to win this coveted prize.

SIDE GLANCES By Galbraith

Here's an interesting article on child care you might want to read, dear.

TIMES TOPICS

AT BAPTIST CHURCH

T. R. Ross, of Meadville, vice president of the Gideon Bible Society, will be the guest speaker at the eleven a. m. service at the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

NURSES COMING HERE

Warren General Hospital Alumni Association will be hostess on Saturday for the May meeting of District 7, Pennsylvania State Nurses' Association, scheduled at 2 p. m. at the YWCA. Directors and sectional groups will also hold their sessions earlier in the day.

IS NAZI PRISONER

James Curry, of Ridgway, according to an announcement of the War Department is a prisoner of the Nazis. Curry is well known in Warren having been a member of the Ridgway Rifle Club and taking part in many shoots held in this section.

FLAG DAY MEETING

Members of the Elk Flag Day committee are reminded of the meeting to be held this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the club house. It is expected that reports will be received on various features of the parade and exercises to be held June 14th. Confirmation has been received from Hon. Leon Gavin, representative from this district, that he will be here to deliver the annual oration.

UNVEILING FLAG

At the 11 a. m. service at the First Lutheran church Sunday a new service flag will be unveiled. Pastor H. A. Rindard will bring a special message and there will be suitable music by the choir. Letters have been sent to relatives of those represented by stars on the flag, asking them to be present to unveil each star as the roll is called. Each one who has received such a letter is asked to call the church office and signify his willingness to participate in the service.

WANT NAVAL OFFICERS

Men of Warren and the Lake vicinity will have an opportunity to learn first-hand their chances of becoming U. S. Navy Officers, the Navy announced today. A special party from the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Pittsburgh, is to make its headquarters in the YMCA at Erie on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 25 and 26, 1943 from 2:00 to 9:00 p. m. Officers in the party will interview applicants and pass upon their prospects of obtaining commissions in the Naval Reserve. Heading the party will be Lieutenant J. M. Hezlep and C. Stanton Belfour. Lieutenant E. C. Coleman of the Medical Corps will conduct physical examinations.

GETS ESSAY AWARD

Vida Kinnudgard was made very happy this morning in a special student assembly at the high school when State Senator L. E. Chapman, chairman of the Thomas Jefferson Bi-centennial Committee of Pennsylvania, presented her with a $50 War Bond, award given the winner in the Thomas Jefferson essay contest conducted by the committee. Presented by Principal Floyd Bathurst. Dr. Chapman spoke briefly on Thomas Jefferson's fine qualities and the requirements for a good student and citizen. Terry Ruhlman, Student Council president, was in charge of the assembly period and led in the opening exercises.

Director Of Scout's Health And Safety Here Today

Wm. E. Lawrence, Assistant National Director of Health and Safety of the Boy Scouts of America, is in Warren today meeting with the leaders of the Warren County Council. The purpose of the visit is to aid the Council leaders in the enrichment and further development of the Emergency Service Training Program.

During the afternoon conference have been scheduled with C. Vance Weld, Field Commissioner for Emergency Service of the Warren County Boy Scout Council, and R. J. E. Richards, Chairman of the Health and Safety Committee. During the latter part of the afternoon, Mr. Lawrence will meet with a group of six Scouts of Troop No. 9 at their troop meeting headquarters in the First Methodist church. With Mr. Lawrence these Scouts will prepare an Emergency Service demonstration for the meeting of Scouters to be held this evening.

A dinner meeting of the members of the local council's health and safety and camping activities committee has been arranged at 5:00 o'clock at the Carver House. The Emergency Service Institute is scheduled for 8:00 p. m. in Room 201 Warren National Bank Building and it is expected the meeting will attract Scoutmasters, their Assistants and Troop Committeemen.

REPAIRS HELD UP

The constant rains and the high stage of the river has worked to delay the repairs to the pier on the Hickory street bridge, a contract for which is held by the Osborne Company, of Franklin. The company has all paraphernalia in readiness to begin work once the stage of water allows it.

ROTARY MEETING

A review of some of the outstanding events of the 1942 Rotary International convention held in Toronto will be presented for local Rotarians at their weekly luncheon-meeting on Monday at the YWCA activities building. Last year's president, Dr. Leonard Rosenzweig, will assist with comment on some of the highlights.

MUCH WORK DONE

Despite the shortage of help and the backward weather the Warren cemeteries are looking most beautiful this spring. There has been a large amount of work done and in both cemeteries a number of new markers and monuments have been set. At St. Joseph's cemetery members of the board of trustees have worked several days cutting grass and doing other essential work.

LOANS TO FARMERS

The Emergency Crop Loan office is still ready to make loans to any farmer needing ready cash to carry out his farm program this year. Our food situation is very critical and the U. S. Crop Loan Office is appealing to all farmers to "plant to the limit" during this year. We will need an abundance of good rich food, beef, hogs, poultry, eggs, more milk and cheese. If any farmers need money at once to carry out this farm program, he should meet Mr. Nealon on Tuesday, May 25, 1943 on the second in the Warren Court House in the law library. Mr. Nealon will arrange to have a check for the farmer within a few days.

We expect Warren county to reach its food production goal and to do this the farmer will have to "plant to the limit". The crop loan office is cooperating by loaning the money to help the farmer to produce crops. If interested meet Mr. Nealon on Tuesday.

Over Seven Inches Marks May Rainfall

Rainfall during the past few weeks has been almost a record breaker and inquiry this morning from the Highway Department where Merle Jordan is out with his umbrella measuring the rain elicited the fact that since May 1st seven and eight-tenths inches have fallen. The effect of this large amount of rain can be noted in the river and creek, many of the lowlands are covered and while not much damage has been done there are some fertile fields covered with water that are usually cultivated.

Along the Conewango much low land is under water and pasture for cattle is flooded in many places. On the smaller streams many are out of their banks. Fishermen report that the water is too high for good fishing and most of the better anglers have hung up their rods until the rains cease. More showers are promised for today and tonight by the weather man.

RUSSELL

Russell, May 18—Clarence A. Stephenson of Jamestown, N. Y., and Miss Catherine Eller of Celoron, N. Y., were united in marriage in the Methodist church at Russell Saturday at 2:30 p. m. May 18th. Rev. David O. May pastor of the local church read the ceremony. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. David Loigren of Jamestown the brides parents and a few other close friends.

On Saturday evening members of the Men's and Women's Bible classes and other friends in the community tendered Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mellor a farewell party at the Methodist church. At 6:30 a twelve supper was served. Later all assembled in the church auditorium where Mr. R. C. Huntley

CEMETERY LOT OWNERS AND VISITORS

Every effort is being made by Oakland Cemetery to have all reasonable work completed prior to Memorial Day but this year's unfavorable weather and labor shortage may delay some of our work.

Due to past experience it is necessary that the following rules be adhered to: Children must be accompanied by proper persons to take care of them and must not be allowed to run over lots or graves. Persons with dogs will not be permitted to enter the grounds.

No parking will be permitted on Oakland Cemetery driveways and entrance except by cemetery lot owners and visitors.

Next week Oakland Cemetery will be open to the public from 8:00 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. after which time the gates will be closed.

BY-PASSING CONGRESS AGAIN

Former Senator Prentiss Brown says that OPA Administrator Prentiss Brown achieved a masterpiece when he provided for food subsidies to the processors to help lower price ceilings without decreasing the return to anybody.

War Information Director Elmer Davis on the radio tried hard to explain why it is better for the consuming public to pay for part of its food through taxes rather than in store prices.

But members of Congress, including many Democrats, got up on their hind legs and protested bitterly about the new attempt to buttress an anti-inflation program that, by concession of high officialdom, had broken down so far as food prices were concerned.

The congressmen, in many instances, are dubious of the value of the subsidy system or go so far as to consider it specifically vicious. But their bitterness does not spring from that difference of opinion. It arises from the fact that once more the executive branch has "legislated" a "reform" which Congress, after careful deliberation, refused to enact.

There is a big question whether such subsidies have any practical value. If they do, it is as another indirect method of sharing the wealth—in this instance, of making John Smith pay for part of the Brown family's food.

In any event, Congress had been asked to provide funds to finance subsidies, and had refused. Whereupon, on the plea of emergency, using funds appropriated for other purposes, the administration began doing what Congress had refused permission for it to do.

Once more this raises the question whether it is possible for the republican mechanism of democratic government to function in time of emergency, or whether it is necessary for us to eliminate the law-making branch, sidetrack the judiciary by working so fast that it cannot intervene effectively, and entrust our government entirely to the White House.

Perhaps this is what should be done. There are times—such, for example, as while the House was fiddling futilely with a new tax bill—when the public gets awfully fed up with procrastination, politics, delay.

But if such departure from our system of government is to be made, it should not be done by attrition and subterfuge. We should make the change voluntarily, democratically, with our eyes open to all the consequences.

THE CHURCH'S WORST ENEMY

(An editorial in "The Methodist Layman" written by Everett W. Palmer)

What do you suppose is the Church's worst enemy? I will give you three guesses! No, it is not Adolf Hitler. It is not even Emperor Hirohito. The Church's worst enemy is none other than the "empty pew."

Here are some of the reasons:

A pew empty because of the indifference and slackness of a member is not silent. It speaks with a voice and language which men everywhere can hear and understand. And what it says discredits the pulpit and the Holy Scriptures.

It declares, "I know all about this Christianity business, and take it from me, it amounts to little. I am a member of the Church, I have signed up as a follower of Jesus, but that does not mean much. It is just something to do, if you feel like it and get around to it. It does not matter much one way or the other."

An empty pew speaks as an enemy of the Church. A pew empty through this disloyalty, or flaccidity, of a member discourages other members of the church. It tends to weaken their allegiance, dampen their enthusiasm, make more difficult their fight against sagging.

No inspiring example, no spirit of fellowship and worship, no encouraging voice in song or prayer, no sturdy companion for righting the world's wrongs rises from an empty pew.

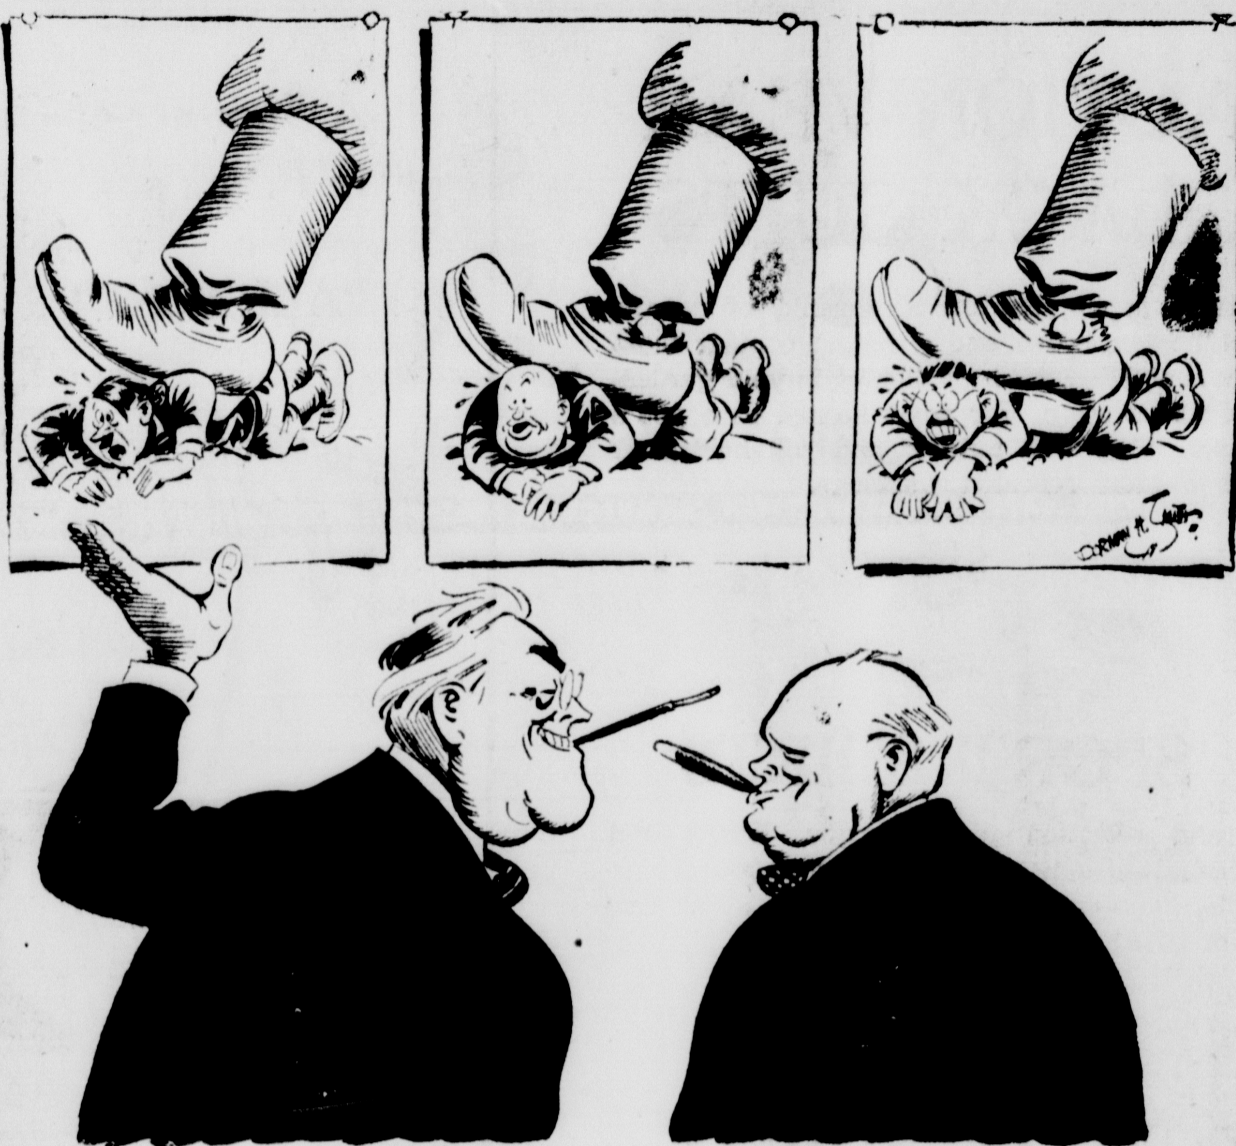

An empty pew is a saboteur in the House of God. Even more damaging to the Church, an empty pew cheats and betrays the person who belongs in it. It is stealing from someone opportunity to share in life's highest adventure and noblest enterprise, without which man's life has neither purpose nor sanity. It is deceiving someone into a life of stupor, or smug self-righteousness, or of careless neglect.

The empty pew is the Church's worst enemy because it is the worst enemy of someone whom God loves.

TOO BAD FOR FINLAND

It is with sincere regret that most Americans have watched relations between this country and Finland progress toward a diplomatic break which almost inevitably will culminate in war. We admire the Finns, and we have been very lenient because we recognize both the animus which led them to join in the war against Russia, and the pressure from Germany which makes it difficult for them now to break away.

"Did I Ever Show You My Stamps, Winnie?"

What It Means

By JOHN GROVER

WASHINGTON—The Office of Price Administration, in subsidizing processors of meat, butter and coffee, is like the boy wading hesitantly into cold water. It's waiting for reaction before taking another step.

Behind the subsidies is a tangled political situation, which could blow up in the faces of the harried OPA and Department of Agriculture.

Subsidies are anathema to farm bloc members. What they want is higher farm prices, and no nonsense about subsidies, which can be taken away. It's their contention that labor has been given the gravy and the farmers haven't got enough to spot a vest.

To bolster this contention they say that industrial labor—currently moaning about high food prices—is actually paying a smaller fraction of its income for food than at any time in recent history.

In other words, the farm bloc admits that farm prices have been boosted by the war, but says they haven't zoomed nearly so fast as wages. Cold turkey figures prepared by the Bureau of Agriculture Economics bear out their argument.

When subsidies were brought out and dusted off a while back as a solution to spiraling prices, Congress slapped the subsidy idea down in short order. Farm members wanted a copper-riveted formula that would raise farm prices to equality with industrial wage increases, which can be used for a yardstick after the war. They fear the subsidy idea would get the old heaven-once the armistice is signed.

Farmer Gets Nixed

Another squawk in Congress against subsidies alleges that actually the farmer doesn't get all the apparent subsidy. Like everybody else in the country who pays federal taxes, he's nixed for part of it.

There's another school of thought that holds subsidies contribute to the very inflation they seek to prevent. Anything that raises the national debt, they say, contributes to inflation, and there's no doubt that subsidies are expensive.

The OPA's first venture into subsidies is calculated to cost $300,000,000 to $400,000,000, and that's peanuts compared to the cost if subsidization becomes general.

The OPA subsidy program is the second federal venture into such payments. The Commodity Credit Corporation is already active in the field. The ceiling price on soybeans, for instance, is $1.65, but CCC is guaranteeing $1.80 for this year's crop. The same deal is being worked in cheese, where the processor is held to a ceiling sale price, but gets a subsidy so he can pay higher milk prices.

The anti-subsidy farm bloc is looking on CCC with a jaundiced and displeased eye. It's one of the agencies limited to a definite period of existence. Its "time" expires with the fiscal year June 30, and unless Congress extends its time, it's a dead do.

Farm Bloc Alert

Some more radical members of the farm bloc may press for its abolition, but it's the general consensus that it will get "life" with a clause written into the new extension forbidding dabbling in subsidies.

It is noteworthy that OPA subsidies are to be paid to the processors, rather than to the farmers direct. It would have been waving a red rag at the farm bloc bull to inaugurate direct subsidies to the grower. This way, the processor can pay higher prices to the farmer, and still exist under his ceiling prices.

The farm bloc isn't saying much now. Don't think for a minute that it hasn't got its eyes peeled, though. What it's watching is the coal mine wage negotiations, or any other wage negotiations designed to hike wages. If they are permitted to rise, under whatever face-saving formula, veteran Congressional observers say the farm bloc will sail over the fence and come down snorting fire.

If that happens, the vetoed Bankhead bill is held a cinch to be revived. That bill would exclude benefit payments in figuring parity prices. FDR said it was inflationary. The "roll back" of food prices through subsidies will come in for budgeting, along with a frontal attack on OPA, CCC and other agencies concerned with prices. If the temper of the farm bloc has been correctly gauged.

A MATTER OF Profit and Pride to the Whole Pennsylvania Oil Region

EXPERTS tell us that our Association is an outstanding co-operative advertising success.

Since PGCOA was organized in 1923 we have invested over $2,500,000 in national advertising to tell car owners of America how good our oils are. Our advertising has been conservative—never sensational. Our oils have borne out every claim we have made for them.

Today more and more of our oils are going to war. But a priceless backlog of consumer preference has been built and is being maintained. An overwhelming majority of motorists continue to prefer 100% Pure Pennsylvania Motor Oils.

That fact means money to our producers, our refiners, our jobbers and marketers. It is a matter of profit and pride to the entire Pennsylvania Oil region.

Garden Clubs in County Enjoy Programs For May Meetings; Make Plans For Next Month

April showers arriving in May, along with the flowers properly designated for this month, have brought announcement of at least two rural garden club events, a May breakfast held by the Hill and Dale Garden Club and a meeting of the Brokenstraw garden group.

The former was entertained at the home of Mrs. D. H. Haggerty at Sugar Grove, with Mrs. Agnes Abbott, Mrs. F. A. Schoonover, Mrs. L. S. Stuart and Mrs. L. S. Stuart as hostesses. Forty members and guests were seated at small tables to enjoy the delicious menu and a program in the form of broadcast from Station HDGC of "Breakfast at Haggerty's".

Mrs. Delmar Mickleson, appropriately garbed, was the master of ceremonies and all attending had specially decorated hats. A corsage was presented to Mrs. Carrie Davis as the oldest woman present. Mrs. Mitchell Mahan won a "wishing ring" and a "good neighbor letter bouquet" was given Miss Josephine Ricker. The hat of Mrs. Howard Rathbun received special mention and Mrs. Gerald Miller impersonated "Corn" in a fine manner.

Following breakfast, there was music by Mrs. Frank Conklin and Mrs. Kenneth Frank; reading by Miss Ricker and Mrs. Scott Stuart. Response to roll call was made with names of vegetables and their origin. Mrs. J. A. McIntosh presided for a short business session. Mrs. Ira Johnson announced a canning demonstration in the Methodist church at 10 a. m. on Thursday, May 27. On the program committee for the day were Mrs. Mickleson and Mrs. Gerald Miller.

Brokenstraw Garden Club members met in Youngsville, entertained by Mrs. C. C. Johnson. Mrs. C. A. Solberg presided and roll call was answered by naming of the state's wild flowers. It was decided to fill with growing flowers the boxes located at the three main entrances to town on East, West and North Main streets, with James Hamilton, Joseph Davis, Metro Teconchuk and Roy McDowell as the committee.

Mrs. Merle Kay read an article on raising bulbs for a lasting garden. There was some discussion of Victory Gardens and members had the opportunity of asking questions concerning gardening problems. Each one drew a diagram of the Victory Garden being planned this year and these were passed about for inspection. Roy Fales showed many pictures taken in the vicinity and the meeting closed with refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Ruth Sour, assisted by Mrs. H. H. Husted.

The June meeting will be held with Mrs. Maud Long, roll call will be answered with the names of gladioli and the discussion topic will be "Cultivating the Garden".

Miriam K. English Becomes the Bride of Sgt. Virgil O. Schultz

Kinzua, May 21.—Mr. and Mrs. W. Boyd English announce the marriage of their daughter, Miriam K., to Staff Sgt. Virgil O. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schultz, of Russell.

The wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage in East Kane last evening, Pastor J. P. Boyd officiating. Attendants were Miss Phyllis Marsh, of Corydon, and Gerald English, of this place.

Gowned in tan crepe, the bride wore matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweet peas and stephanotis. Her bridesmaid wore

Legion Auxiliary Is Hostess At Dedication Day Tea

There were about 100 in attendance at the Legion Home Thursday afternoon for the "Dedication Day" tea given by members of the American Legion Auxiliary for women folks of men and women in the armed forces.

A period of delightful instrumental music was provided from two until three o'clock by a trio composed of Helen E. Olson, Ruth Morrison and Dorothy Engstrom. At three o'clock Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, auxiliary president, took charge of a short program which opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and The Star-Spangled Banner, prayer by Auxiliary Chaplain Eliza Dunham and recital of the preamble to the auxiliary constitution.

After extending a sincere welcome to the guests, she presented Mrs. K. W. Davis, wife of one of the first commanders of the local Legion post, who explained the origin, purposes and some of the outstanding achievements of the auxiliary.

Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Eva Humiston, Mrs. Elvora Armstrong and Mrs. Lydia Spangler, were presented with corsages of spring flowers by Mrs. C. D. Cannon, past president of the unit.

A violin solo by Mrs. Olson was followed by a vocal duet by Mrs. Roy Krebs and Mrs. Carl Lindquist, accompanied by Mrs. Jesse Smith. The program closed with another solo by Mrs. Olson.

Refreshments were served in the dining room, where Mrs. Humiston and Mrs. Armstrong presided at the beautifully decorated table.

Mrs. Schultz was graduated from the local high school in 1942 and is attending Hoff Business College in Warren. Her husband, graduate of Lander High School in 1937, has served for the past two and one-half years with the Army Air Forces in Puerto Rico and Jamaica. At the conclusion of his furlough he will report to the Air Forces replacement center at Tampa, Fla. His wife will remain with her parents for the present.

Golden Wedding Of Jacob Ganders Has Many In Attendance

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ganders, 2023 Pennsylvania avenue, east, was the scene of a delightful gathering Thursday when about 175 relatives and friends called during the afternoon and evening to tender congratulations on the occasion of their golden wedding day.

Added pleasure for the couple was provided in the presence of their five children, Mrs. Webster Sechrist, Mrs. Wayne Painter, Mrs. Fred Fuhrer and Mrs. Neil Woodruff, of Warren, and Fred Ganders, of Elizabeth, N. J.

Also present from out of town were Mrs. Ganders and their two children, Joan and Alice, of Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ganders and son, John, Union City; Miss Mary Wright, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Moore, Ridgeway.

Another guest last evening was Mrs. Louis Hartweg, Sr., who attended the reception which followed the wedding rites in 1893. Unable to be present was the only grandson of the couple, Robert Fuhrer, who is serving in the armed forces.

Rev. A. Sennwald, pastor of the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, of which the Ganders are both charter members, gave a short talk and the celebrants were showered with flowers, greetings and many remembrances of the occasion.

Refreshments were served buffet style, with three granddaughters, Joan and Alice Ganders and Barbara Watson, with a friend, Kay Matthews, presiding. Attractive table decorations were carried out with a bouquet of yellow tulips, snapdragons and daisies and yellow candles, all these matching the corsage of yellow roses worn by the bride of 50 years ago.

Mary Horning Bride Of Aviation Cadet In Midland Army Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Horning, 12½ North South street, announce today the marriage of their only daughter, Mary, to Aviation Cadet Edwin E. Bliss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bliss and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bliss, of Sheffield.

The military ceremony was performed by candlelight at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, May 15, in the chapel of the Army Air Force bombardier school at Midland, Tex. Chaplain C. C. Dollar officiated and wedding music was played by the chapel organist.

Attendants were Cadet and Mrs. Guy Andersen, of Fort Worth and Dallas, Tex. The bride was attired in a light blue gaberdine dressmaker suit with which she wore a white hat, yellow and white accessories and a corsage of yellow and pink roses and bouvardia. Mrs. Andersen wore a blue and white print, blue hat and white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The ceremony was followed by an informal wedding dinner for the bridal party and a few close friends.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school in the class of 1941 and has been employed by the New Process Company. Cadet Bliss was graduated from Sheffield High School in 1940. They will reside temporarily in Midland, where he is in training at the bombardier school.

Personal Paragraphs

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steber and daughter, Louise, Fifth avenue, are expected home some time today from Northampton, Mass., where Miss Louise graduated from Smith College this week.

Mrs. Mary Corah, office secretary of the Warren County Motor Club, will leave this evening for Youngstown, O., where her sister, Miss Ollie McNamara, Union street, is a patient in St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Zontians Name New Directors - Officers For Coming Season

Meeting for luncheon and a business session in the YWCA activities building Thursday afternoon, members of Zonta Club elected the following new directors to serve in the coming year: Jessie Davidson, Marjorie Dougherty, Frances Schimmelfeng and Julia Heibel. Others continuing in this office in the coming year are Wilda Peel, Mary Corah, Althea Correll and Ann Snyder.

Directors then reelected Mrs. Davidson president for next year, with Mrs. Correll as vice president; Ann Snyder, reelected secretary, and Mrs. Dougherty named as treasurer.

Some time was spent in discussing plans for a dinner-meeting to be held on the evening of June 3. Mrs. Corah to announce plans and details later.

A TRIM TWO-PIECER By Anne Adams

Lead the summer two-piece hit parade—in this Anne Adams style. Pattern 4320! Wouldn't it be attractive in a plaid cotton? The jaunty jacket fits smoothly through the hips and has a shapely collar. The front and back paneled skirt might be made of matching or contrasting fabric. Pattern 4320 is available only in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 4½ yards 35-inch.

Send SIXTEEN CENTS in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER. TEN CENTS more brings you our new Summer Pattern Book with cool, smart styles for work and play.

Send your order to Warren Times-Mirror, Pattern Department, 243 West 17th St., New York, N. Y.

ner meeting, with places for 50 at a table beautifully done in lilacs and other spring flowers and matching candles.

Group singing between courses was led by Elizabeth Sheets with Mabel Smith at the piano. Following dinner, the cast for the play, "Call it Freedom", was introduced and adjournment was made to the social rooms where the presentation was ably given by the following: Martha Swick, director; Wilda Fowler, Elizabeth Brasington, Margaret Chester, Ruth Bannon. The play brings forcibly to mind the ideals for which the YW stands in its work with all races and creeds.

Business meetings of the two clubs followed, with annual election of officers resulting in choice of these members: Ali-We-Je Club—President, Mabel Swanson; vice president, Ruth Woodin; secretary, Orpha Pettit; treasurer, Mabel Smith. Y-Debs Club—President, Josephine Collins; vice president, Gertrude Erickson; secretary-treasurer, Blanche Loomis; program chairman, Ruth Olson; dinner chairman, Sara Jane Hartman.

It was stated that June 17 is the date for the Ali-We-Je Club's annual picnic, the time and place to be announced later; also that on June 2 the Y-Debs' picnic will take place at the home of Ruth Olson.

Don't let a Lack of these 6 Essential Vitamins Rob you of Pep and Vitality!

NEW! Nutri-Mins give you all the vitamins specified as essential by U. S. Authorities. You get the all-important B Complex vitamins (B₁, B₂, Niacinamide) and vitamins A, C and D... and you get them in the proportions and in the amounts recommended as the full minimum by experts... all in two tablets a day! (See the chart below.)

12 DAY SUPPLY 48¢
100 DAY SUPPLY $3.50

Thousands Can SAVE 30¢ to $1 a Month!

You pay only 4¢ a day (not 5¢, 6¢, 7¢ or 8¢ a day).

Nutrition authorities say you can't be at your best physically unless you get, from some source, at least certain daily minimum amounts of the B Complex Vitamins (B₁, B₂ and Niacinamide) and Vitamins A, C and D.

And now, for only 4¢ a day, Nutri-Mins bring you all six of these vitamins in the full minimum amounts recommended by experts.

Nutri-Mins are chemically and biologically assayed and prepared to strict specifications. They are backed by one of America's leading Drug Companies.

Ask for Nutri-Mins at your drug counter. Show the package label to your doctor. He will agree that two Nutri-Mins a day provide the full recommended minimum amounts of all the vitamins specified as essential by U. S. Govt. Authorities! But if for any reason you are dissatisfied with Nutri-Mins, return the partly used package and we will refund double the purchase price. Lambert Vitamins Company, Inc., New York City.

CHURCH NOTES

Mr. Grove, representative of the Gideon Bible Society, will be a guest speaker at the 11 a. m. service Sunday in the United Brethren church and all interested in this work are invited to hear his message.

Word has just reached here that Rev. Fred M. Bennett, of Avalon, has accepted calls extended him by the Endeavor and Tionesta Presbyterian churches and that he and Mrs. Bennett will move into the manse on June 1. His first service at Tionesta will be at 11 a. m. on June 6 and at Endeavor, an evening worship period to be announced later.

Attention is called to the fact that a special offering for Lutheran World Action is to be taken at the 10:30 a. m. service at St. Paul's on Sunday and that a Gideon Bible Society representative will speak at the evening service at seven o'clock. The children's choir will be heard at this service, also.

Announcement by Pastor Carl Gronquist shows the following busy schedule at Bethany Lutheran church in Sheffield next week: Tuesday, 8 p. m., Young Women's Bible Class at the home of Mrs. Vernon Klingensmith; Wednesday, 8 p. m., choir rehearsal; Thursday, 8 p. m., Sunday school teachers and officers; Friday, 8 p. m., Luther League; Saturday, 3 p. m., Junior Missionary Society. Reporting for Moriah events at Ludlow, he lists the following: Wednesday, 4 p. m., and Saturday, 9:45 a. m., confirmation instruction.

At 9:45 a. m. Sunday, members of the First Presbyterian junior department will entertain parents and friends by presenting the worship service and exhibiting projects in connection with their studies. Mrs. Maude Whitcomb's group of girls will sing the prayer hymn and the thought for the day will be given by Sally Swick, Louis McCullough, Peggy Henderson and Richard Bean. Tommy Richards and Richard Bartsch will usher and Elizabeth Dunham will play the offertory. Sermon subject for the 11 a. m. service will be "He Restored My Soul". The choir, directed by Betty Mason, will sing God of the Dew by Whitmer and If You Love Me by Tallis. Betty Mason at the organ will use as her preludes: Praecludium by Rinek, Prelude by Flagler and Third Variation on "Vater Unser" by Mendelssohn.

Members of First Methodist church are urged to cooperate with the government conservation program by bringing their current expense pledges for the ensuing year to the Sunday morning worship service. A period of the service will be set aside for singing and consecration of these pledges. In the afternoon at 2:30, the every-member-canvas will be launched under the direction of N. D. Paterson, finance chairman, to close on Wednesday evening. The church is urging these voluntary pledges in order to save gasoline, rubber and the time of the solicitor.

The Home is maintained largely through the proceeds of the annual national V. F. W. Buddy Poppy distribution sponsored by the V. F. W. prior to Memorial Day of each year. Inset, Florence Ollila, seven years old, of the Home, presents the first 1943 Buddy Poppy to President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

forceful speaker, all will want to hear his stirring message. There will be special music each evening, including a good song service. Throughout the campaign there will be special "nights" and at some of these awards will be given. Services begin nightly at eight o'clock and all members and friends are invited to "come and bring others with you and bring your Bibles."

PHILEMON GRANNIS
Funeral services in memory of Philemon Grannis, aged Corydon resident, were held from the family home at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Allan Pfautz, of Corydon. Two hymns, "Abide With Me" and "The Old Rugged Cross," were sung by Mrs. Pfautz. Bearers for interment in Corydon cemetery were Charles and Howard Nobbs, of Eden, N. Y., Robert and L. L. Shaw.

The funeral of Richard L. Wolfe, 5 Hill street, was held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday, in charge of Rev. William G. Woodward, pastor of the United Brethren church. Interment was made in Pine Grove cemetery at Russell, with the following as bearers: Junior Lawson, Charles Robbins, Edward Rapp, Guy Upinger, Harold Goodwin and Lawrence Owens.

Those who came from out of town to attend the rites were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wolfe and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. Verna Sperrazzo, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ruf, Walter and Sophie Dombrowski, Eric; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schuler, Edinboro; Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, Mrs. John Kerr, Mary Harry Danner, Mill Village; Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Lawson and son, Junior, Youngsville; Mrs. Ethel Holmberg and Charles Robbins, Irvine; Beryl Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mead, Mrs. Ida Wolfe, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hildum and daughter, Twila Lou, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas, Stoneham.

Clothes On Woman Said To Be Not Hers

How would you feel to be perambulating along the avenue and see another woman with a skirt of yours draped over her plump derriere? Well last night a Warren woman had that experience and she got so mad she called the police. By that time the skirt had disappeared. The woman with the mad on over the woman with the skirt on then proceeded to tell the cops that along with the skirt went several other garments and $15 in folding money. From what could be gathered by the cops the room of the skirtless woman had been invaded and the garments and money taken. She has a clue as to the identity of the woman and passed that on to the police.

Along about 2:30 a rush call was made to a local hotel where a Warren man had been given a trimming by one of the boys with the Penn Premier Shows. According to what the police could learn the carnival man and his wife were playing gin rummy in the hotel lobby when the Warren man butted in and was finally put in his place. The cops poured oil on the waters and soothing balm on battered features and the case may end in a Justice office. Who knows?

Lewis May Succeed AFL Leader Green

he did promptly. This left Green in an embarrassing position, until the musicians' union came along with an honorary membership for him. Since then, he and Lewis have exchanged some harsh words.

Lewis forgets like an elephant. His time may come in October, when the annual Federation convention and election takes place. If Green retires it will be done gracefully, perhaps on a pension. Few AFL controversies are fought on the open convention floor.

Lewis' return is brought with political implications. Many believe he and his principal ally, William L. Hutchison, the carpenters' president, have their eyes on the 1944 presidential campaign. It is an accepted fact that they will be in the Republican camp. Success there would restore Lewis to the White House guest list, a privilege he misses.

danger exists in the fact that autumn frosts may kill the crop before it is matured, because of the late plantings.

A loss of between 5 and 15 per cent of the oats crop in some states was indicated, the experts said, but they added that winter wheat in much of the southwest had not been touched by rain.

Beau Jack Favorite In Tonight's Fuss

By SID FEDER
New York, May 21—(AP)—The Beau Jack and Bobcat Montgomery collide tonight for the world lightweight championship, and trying to pick the winner is like Aunt Emma making her mind between the blue hat with the bouquet of bananas or a red one with the bird nest.

The Beau is a 5 to 11 choice over the better 49th street betting shops in this 15-round fuss. Madison Square Garden, and most of the wise-guys have been betting you for days that the one-time Georgia shoe-shine boy will quite a high polish all over the Philadelphia challenger once he's turned loose at 10 p. m. (WT).

On recent form, the jumping jack, who was handed this New York version of the lightweight championship last December after Jimmy Angott retired, figures to make his first "defense" a happy celebration. He not only has cleaned up among the lightweights, but he moved in among the welter and welter-middleweights and walloped Fritzzy and Henry Armstrong more than a little bit. But Bobcat Bob Montgomery had his artillery aimed at a lightweight title shot for a long time now, after five non-title tussles with 135-pound bosses and his confident he'll hit the bulls-eye in this battle.

Reduced to simple terms, it's a question of the Beau's slugging, scatter-shot, shut-your-eyes, mid-swing brand of belting against the experience and the body thumping stuff Montgomery has loaded in his cannon. The Beau has tried using his last two three outtings, and tonight's title party is slated for the full 15 rounds.

From all indications, including one of the "side-bets" you hear "smarties" making along Jacobs Beach, 19,000 or 20,000 of the big Eighth Avenue sports upbowls, and "Uncle Mike" Jacobson will have a bundle with the betting distance of the $100,000 mark—say $90,000 or more. Which, you have to admit, "ain't tin."

Despised Outfit Wallops Cubs Twice Causing Wrigley To Call Help

BY JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Philadelphia Phillies not only are standing on their own feet these days, they are tramping on the toes of a lot of other clubs in the National League.

Here is what they did yesterday:

1. Shut out the Chicago Cubs in both ends of a doubleheader 3-0 and 2-0, allowing the Bruins just four hits in each game.

2. Made the Cubs' plight so disturbing that Philip K. Wrigley, their multi-millionaire owner, personally announced settlement of the club's contract squabble with Lou Novikoff.

3. Rejected the Brooklyn Dodgers' offer of two players for second baseman Danny Murtaugh, thus causing the Dodgers to sell them Pitcher Newt Kimball and send Alex Kampouris to Washington for cash in order to get under the 25-player limit.

4. Threatened the third-place standing of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

The twin triumphs over the Cubs were achieved on superlative pitching by Charley Fuchs and Lefty Al Gerheuser, a pair of rookies. The Phillies made nine hits off Bill Lee in the first game, but in the nightcap were held to four by Kewpie Barrett, the unlucky gent who recently lost a one-hit game to Pittsburgh. Two singles and some bad infelting by the Cubs provided the Phils both their runs in the third inning of this game.

This extended the Cubs' losing streak to nine games, miring them deep in the cellar and forcing them to compromise on the salary demands of Novikoff, a 300 hitter last year who was the last major league holdout. The detail of whether he should be paid during the period of his suspension was to be worked out today.

The Phillies' winning string was stretched to five games and they moved within half a game of the Cardinals, who were beaten 5-2 at Brooklyn.

This made the four-game Brooklyn-St. Louis series a standoff between the Cardinals and Frank (Rube) Melton, who accounted for both the Dodgers' victories. The former Phils ace stopped the Redbirds 1-0 Monday and then came back on two days rest yesterday to pitch a seven-hitter.

The Phillies' winning string was stretched to five games and they moved within half a game of the Cardinals, who were beaten 5-2 at Brooklyn.

This made the four-game Brooklyn-St. Louis series a standoff between the Cardinals and Frank (Rube) Melton, who accounted for both the Dodgers' victories. The former Phils ace stopped the Redbirds 1-0 Monday and then came back on two days rest yesterday to pitch a seven-hitter.

The Cubs' losing streak was extended to nine games, miring them deep in the cellar and forcing them to compromise on the salary demands of Novikoff, a 300 hitter last year who was the last major league holdout. The detail of whether he should be paid during the period of his suspension was to be worked out today.

Tonight Will Settle Fate Of Sunset Ball

A meeting this evening in the Times Editorial rooms will settle the fate of the Sunset League. Will it perform or will it fold up—that is the question. The meeting will be called at 8 o'clock and every case hardened baseball fan in the community is urged to attend and put in his five cents worth.

Let there be no moaning when the decision is reached, say the promoters. It's now or never for baseball this summer and here's hoping there will be a big crowd out this evening.

Chapter 14

TWO venison steaks sizzled over the red embers of Penny's campfire. Cleve sat in the fire, stroking Wolf's silky coat. He had just brewed tea in a blackened pail borrowed from the Cree hunters, had told Penny how to mix up a bannock, and now was impatiently waiting for dinner to be served.

"Nothing like food to bolster a fellow's morale," he said, watching Penny spread out a square of tannin they had to use as a makeshift tablecloth. "You don't realize it until you have to go without for a while, eh, tot?"

Penny nodded. Her attention was divided between setting the table and watching the bannock. It mustn't burn. Cleve had cautioned. Bannock, the north country's substitute for hot biscuit, was delicious when baked in front of hot coals, he claimed. One simply propped the dishful of hot dough up close to the fire where the right amount of heat would strike it, and then prayed nothing would happen to it. Penny was praying earnestly.

Already it was turning a rich golden brown. Cleve smirked his lips.

"You aren't a real sourdough," he said, "until you can do a bang-up job like that. Congratulations."

They both laughed. It occurred to Penny that it was the first time either one of them had laughed for a long time. Things looked better now. Cleve's spirits were high. Tomorrow, with good luck, they would reach Long Portage.

That night Penny slept well and on the following morning, awakened early. She prepared breakfast, then called Cleve.

He didn't answer. Perhaps he'd spent a bad night. Once more she called, feeling a little guilty about disturbing him. He really shouldn't be traveling at all.

"Get up, Cleve," she said, finally shaking him. "Your instructions."

Popping up out of his blankets, Cleve rubbed his eyes. They were bloodshot. His cheeks were gaunt. He kept feeling of his bandaged arm. He rose, went down to the creek to wash, swaying a little as he walked.

Penny was frightened. Upon his return he sat down heavily opposite her.

"I had a devil of a night," he said.

"Oh, Cleve, why didn't you wake me?" asked Penny remorsefully.

"Why should I? You needed the rest. I'm glad you got it."

"Have some tea—it's nice and hot."

Penny glanced at his flushed face, his fever-cracked lips. He was thinner than she'd ever seen him. She thought of Bert Stringer and her fingers curled angrily in her palms.

"Cleve," she said brokenly, "you—you—what were we thinking of last night? We could have asked those Cree to help us. Now it's too late."

"They did help us with food."

"I don't mean that."

"What do you mean exactly?" Penny spread out her hands appealingly to him. "Let's not pretend any more. You can't go on, Cleve. It's impossible."

"Then what can I do? Stay here and rot?"

"Cleve," she said, "if we can persuade those Indians to take you in and look after you, I can go for help."

"Where?"

"To the river. Some boat will be sure to come along."

"What about Bill?"

Penny's brow puckered. "He'll have to wait, I guess."

"GOOD heavens, Penny, do you know what you're saying? For all we know, a delay might prove fatal to Bill."

There was no answer to that. Penny felt desperately lonely and inadequate. She was faced with two emergencies, and no way of knowing which was the greater. If only there were some means of finding out which one needed her the most—C

TREES DRINK FOG
California redwoods are confined to the coastal range and flourish very near sea level. They derive their moisture from summer rains, but from fog, which blows in from the sea.

Skin Irritations Are Most Annoying
But many have found relief by the persistent use of San-Cura Ointment and San-Cura Soap. Antiseptic San-Cura Ointment cools, comforts and helps clear an unsightly skin irritation. In rectal irritations wash the parts with San-Cura Soap before applying the Ointment. San-Cura Ointment being antiseptic is excellent for allaying itching between the toes after washing with San-Cura Soap. San-Cura Ointment 35c and 60c. Soap 25c.

Gas Ban Hits District As Hard Blow

Under orders from the OPA checks are being made of all drivers in the Pittsburgh area on the use of autos for pleasure driving and requests have been made at Harrisburg to the State Police for their aid in the check-ups on the road. As yet no orders have been issued to the Borough police by Burgess Steber but inasmuch as all borough police over the state are being asked to aid Warren's police will doubtless soon be given that assignment.

The effect of the order was felt almost at once in this city and caused the Darling Jewelry Company to postpone their annual party for the Seniors of the various High Schools and the event is one that is looked forward to with keen anticipation. However, with the gas ban clamped down the company officials with due regard for the wishes of the government and with patriotic impulse at once took action. It was a keen disappointment to the Darling Company and also to the scores of high school graduates.

Several family reunions and other affairs have also been called off due to the ruling and it will be generally observed.

Traffic on the streets last night and today indicated a general compliance with the order to cease the use of cars for non-essential purposes and the absence of cars parked on the streets reflects the fact that many have been put away in garages.

Pittsburgh, May 21.—(P)—Motorists driving in the nine-county Pittsburgh OPA district today were on essential business—or for, backing up the renewed ban on non-essential driving, a small army of OPA investigators was patrolling the highways, armed with orders to halt any driver anywhere at any time. They were accompanied by city and state police, who did the actual halting to permit OPA interrogation.

Even "A" card holders had to tell where they were going and why.

District Manager Alvin J. Williams said persons found pleasure driving will go before OPA local boards for trial.

Violators were also being sought at theatres, ballrooms and other amusement places, and tonight the officers will make the rounds of the nightspots.

The nine counties in the Pittsburgh district are Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Green, Lawrence, Washington and Westmoreland.

Charles Lutwidge Dodgson was the real name of Lewis Carroll, author of "Alice in Wonderland."

Players Club Radiologist Pleases With Temporarily At Hospital

Inability to understand many of the lines given with accents employed by a variety of nationalities proved the major difficulty of the audience which assembled in the Woman's Club auditorium Thursday evening for the opening performance of "Watch on the Rhine."

This Broadway success by Lillian Hellman was the Warren Players' choice for its spring public play and, without doubt, the ban placed on pleasure driving as of Thursday noon was largely responsible for the small turnout for the initial performance.

Oliver A. Huff presented the following cast, in order of appearance in the production: Gonny Link, Marie Hamilton, Mac Kinney, Donald Folman, Jr., Anne Krantz, Leo Driscoll, Astrid Cowden, Duane Wilder, Wilmer Latshaw, Toni Hamilton and Hans Link.

If special mention is given any special role it must go to Mrs. Hamilton for her fine portrayal of Fanny Farrelly, in whose home the action takes place. Again Mrs. Hamilton gives a most convincing performance, the choicest tribute which can be paid an actor or actress. Also outstanding was the smallest and youngest member of the cast, Wilmer Latshaw, walking encyclopedia and grandson of the charming Fanny. Working together as a whole, the cast did a fine piece of work and one that is worthy of a capacity house when the curtain goes up at 8:30 tonight.

Yamamoto spoke English fluently, and the munitions center of Essen, home of the giant Krupps works, destroyed 113 Axis planes yesterday.

On the invasion-littered southern flank of Hitler's Europe, U. S. Army flying fortresses delivered a fiery assault on the Italian airbase at Grosseto, 90 miles north of Rome, and other Allied planes attacked stepping-stone islands in the Mediterranean including Sardinia and Pantelleria.

Allied headquarters in North Africa announced that American fighters and bombers alone destroyed 113 Axis planes yesterday.

In widespread sweeps marking "one of the greatest victory days in the history of the strategic air force."

With a loss of one Allied plane, 91 enemy aircraft were destroyed on the ground and 22 in furious sky fighting. Seven of the victims were huge German Messerschmitt-323 transports, each capable of carrying 120 persons.
